Risk and Indemnity Agreement

Duty of Liability: I acknowledge that competitors participate in this event entirely at their own risk. See ISAF Rule 4, Decision to Participate/Race. The organising authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the cruise/race. I acknowledge that sailing can be a dangerous sport and all those taking part in the event do so at their own risk and responsibility.

Declaration: I agree to indemnify all officers or agents of the Clarence River Yacht Club Inc. and any other committee associated with this Event. I agree to be bound by the ISAF Racing Rules of Sailing, the prescriptions and special regulations of the AS (except as any of these are altered by the sailing instructions) and by the sailing instructions, and in consideration for my entry in this event.

Safety Equipment: My boat complies with AS Safety Regulations Category 5 for races and 5N for overnight races with limited rescue availability in enclosed waters and/or my boat complies with YA Safety regulations for Category 7 Off the Beach Monohulls and Catamarans. I agree the Clarence River Yacht Club Inc. is not responsible for the seaworthiness of a yacht whose entry is accepted or the sufficiency or adequacy of its equipment.

Insurance: Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third party liability insurance and a minimum cover of $5,000,000 per event or equivalent.

This Risk and Indemnity Agreement is binding upon all persons participating in the event who do not sign this document but will be reasonably be considered to become aware of the document and its meaning by receipt of or access to the event information on the CRYC website or at the event.

By signing this form and/or returning this form via email the Skipper acknowledges that they and their crew members have read and understood the above Risk and Indemnity Agreement.
